Re: United States v. Michael Hlday
20 Cr. 008 (MKB)

Dear Judge Brodie:

By this letter, Hlday respectfully requests permission to use a cellular telephone that does not have internet capabilities for the limited purpose of calling Pretrial Services ("Pretrial"), counsel, his wife and his mother. The number for this phone has been provided to the government and Pretrial and records are readily available to ensure that defendant observes the call restrictions. Additionally, defendant new Pretrial Officer in Florida noticed that Hlday's bond inadvertently does not allow for him to both drop off, and pick up, his wife at work. Defendant respectfully requests that his bond be modified to remedy this error and permit both drop off and pick up.

The government and Pretrial consent to these applications .

Very truly yours,
Sanford Talkin
